REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

In response to the Office Action dated December 2, 2005, Applicants respectfully request reconsideration and withdrawal of the rejections of the claims.

The Office Action has withdrawn claims 75-84 from consideration, stating that they are directed to subject matter that is independent or distinct from the originally claimed invention. In particular, the Action states that these claims are drawn to a preview control element which causes the content of a selected media file to be reproduced prior to recording. However, this subject matter was included within the original claims. See, for example, claim 25. Furthermore, this subject matter was examined and prior art was specifically cited against it. See the Office Action dated September 5, 2003, page 17, first paragraph.

Accordingly, it is respectfully submitted that the Office Action has not set forth a proper basis for withdrawing claims 75-84 from the application. The concept of previewing the media file prior to recording is not newly presented in these claims for the first time. It was included in the original claims and explicitly examined. There was no restriction of this
